

The Making His'tory program brings together 10 – 15 young men to work with two Groundswell male artists in discussing and identifying issues and conditions impacting young men today. The program culminates in the creation of a large-scale summer mural that addresses a chosen topic.

Making His'tory will meet at:
Groundswell
540 President Street, Suite 1A, (Dial '10' to get buzzed in)
Brooklyn, NY 11215

Program Dates and Times:

May 5th, 2017 through June 9th 2017
Fridays, 4pm – 7pm

You will also receive a $50 stipend for your participation and priority placement in Groundswell's Summer Leadership Institute program, employing youth full time in mural making in the summer months.

For the program, please fill out the attached form and forward to:

Groundswell
Attn: Ama Bentsi-Enchill
Email: youthdev@groundswell.nyc
Fax: 718-254- 9783

For more information: call 718-254-9782 or email youthdev@groundswell.nyc

2017 Making His'tory Application

First Name: _____ Last Name: _____

Age: _____ Birth date: _____ Ethnicity: _____

Grade: _____ School: _____ School Borough: _____

Neighborhood you live in: _____

Mailing Address: _____ Apt #: _____

City/State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ (home) _____ (cell)

Email: _____

Parent/Guardian: _____ Phone: _____

Parent/Guardian E-mail: _____

The Making His-tory program for self-identified young men focused on identifying issues facing men today through self-guided research and group discussion. Please answer the following questions to demonstrate your readiness for the program.

What issues related to young men are important for you to address in Making His'tory?

What are some leadership/art skills you hope to gain by participating in Making His'tory?

Please list all Groundswell programs you've participated in:

Mail or email completed applications by April 7th to:
Groundswell, 540 President Street, Suite 1A, Brooklyn NY 11215; youthdev@groundswell.nyc